

Operations Technician

Responsibilities

- Working safely (safety)
- Monitor the progress of the production process (performance)
- Working according to working methods, processes, and protocols (working method)
- Making a high-quality product, reporting deviations (quality)
- Working on a clean and tidy workplace (working environment)

Tasks:

- Active part of the production process
- Make necessary adjustments to the machine
- Looking ahead: preparing the next production batch
- In addition to producing, you always make yourself useful either cleaning, updating standards or helping your colleagues
- Communicate well within your team and use the tools for that (radio etc)
- Reporting (to foreman) of technical deviations from the machine operation
- Pro-actively help in the event of malfunctions and standstills and be ready to go as quickly as possible and help also in other areas when standstills appear
- At planned downtimes, convert the machine as efficiently as possible (not just your own station)
- Cleaning up / cleaning workplace during production or standstill, including taking care of tools and putting them back on the spot they belong to
- Working safely and using your PPE and reporting unsafe situations
- Stopping the machine in unsafe situations
- Check the quality of the product and possibly reject it
- Duty to report quality deviations
- Ensuring product quality by checking active panel
- Machine stop when quality is not good in the absence of foreman
- Quality service and production management support in making standards
- Turn a maximum of 300 meters 2A grade, then always stop
- Ensuring a good work transfer to other shifts
- Adequate provision of registrations and other administrative work
- Making a positive contribution to your team by working as a team player
- Proactive thinking along in the field of quality, health and safety and the environment

Competencies

- Accurate/structured work
- Technical insight / Handyman
- Flexible and reliable
- Be stress resistant
- Taking responsibility (ownership)

If interested to know more about this position, please reach out to jkeizer@falkpanel.com or call 616.540.1053